

Your film and book comparison

Write by hand unless you have a laptop accommodation. Use a fresh copy for another comparison. Take brief movie notes, then compare the scene with the biography when you reach the matching chapter.

Name:

Date / segment:

Reading completed:

1. Film: What did you notice?

Name the song or describe the scene. Record a specific action, claim, or impression you want to compare with the biography.

2. Biography: What does the book say about the same event?

Record the chapter and exact page. Give a specific event, action, or short quotation. If you have not reached the passage, note when you will return to it.

3. Compare: What is the same or different?

Explain what the film gets right, changes, or leaves out. If you have not read the matching passage, write "Read and compare later."

4. Why it matters: What does a viewer learn or misunderstand?

Explain how the portrayal affects our understanding of the history. If useful, begin: "This could lead a viewer to think..."

Follow-up: What will I read or watch next to complete this comparison? Which Friday checkpoint will help?
