

Dear Students,

To promote quality discussion, students will complete this rubric after discussing each required reading. Mr. Cutler reserves the right to disagree with your assessment. Please be honest.

NAME:

☐

DATE:

READING:

5 POINTS

- Student commentary was consistently focused
- Student consistently supported commentary with evidence
- Student continually maintained strong eye contact with classmates and instructor
- Student actively listened throughout entire discussion
- Student effectively responded to, and built upon, classmate responses

☐

4 POINTS

- Student commentary was mostly focused
- Student mostly supported commentary with evidence
- Student somewhat maintained eye contact with classmates and instructor
- Student actively listened throughout most of the discussion
- Student somewhat responded to, and built upon, classmate responses

☐

3 POINTS

- Student commentary was inconsistently focused
- Student inconsistently supported commentary with evidence
- Student maintained limited eye contact with classmates and instructor
- Student actively listened throughout a portion of the discussion
- Student ineffectively responded to, and built upon, classmate responses

☐

2 POINTS

- Student commentary was unfocused
- Student did not support commentary with evidence
- Student did not maintain eye contact with classmates and instructor
- Student did not listen in an active fashion
- Student ineffectively responded to, and built upon, classmate responses

☐

0 POINTS

- Student was completely disengaged from discussion.

